I still have to meet the guy who is reliably credited with saying: "I've made up my mind. Facts only confuse me." Ugh! He controls the economic destinies of quite a few people, right here in town. He lives and works here too.

Cary Grant and his wife in a dinner-time in 'The Dunes' huddle with Don Hartman, a big wheel at Paramount. This Cary Grant is certainly graciously polite.

Young Bill Ellis, down DeSoto Plymouth way without fanfare or word, send two calves and five pigs to the Mickey Finn Boy's Ranch and an automobile for Mrs. Finn to use for transportation while hubby is on the ranch with his boys. Ellis didn't tell me but Mickey did!

THEN THERE ARE the three human interest stories that piled into the office at one time

Crews Mop Up After Controlling 2 Brush Fires

Fire fighters today "mopped up" two Southern California mountain brush fires which blackened a total of 750 acres before being brought under control Tuesday night.

The most serious blaze was located in the Waterman Canyon area of the San Bernardino National Forest. It broke out Monday morning and for a time threatened scores of homes in the Upper Waterman Tract. The blaze burned 350 acres of valuable brush and timber.

Forestry officials said heavy rains in the coming season could inflict "terrible damage" because of this fire and previous ones in the area.

The other fire burned over 400 acres of brush in the Los Padres National Forest near Santa Barbara.

No structures were burned in either fire.

to involve the following: Elderly lady befriends a stranger in our midst. He was accidentally killed in June. Today the little old lady was notified by attorneys that she has inherited $1000. And this Villager, mother of five, always helping others out. She, Helen Wilkins, landed in the hospital but she didn't have to worry about her children. They were well taken care of by neighbors, one of them, Pete, bartender of many years at the Chi Chi who took in three of the Wilkins' kids while another neighbor took the other two.

And then there is the young man suddenly stricken with an incurable disease with harvest time at hand. His neighbors turned out to aid the wife and the children. Her husband is glad to know that there are good people in the world that he is going to leave behind.

Pat O'Dea, the factotum of all greeters both here and in Hollywood for Don the Beachcomber, (and he knows more famous people than a lot of famous people know) is counting each day until that day in February when his wife will present him with child. He and his beautiful lady took a busman's holiday to dine at The Saddle and Sirlin. By the way, have you ever noticed that head waiter at the same place by the name of Nash Arenas. He has been with Sunny Sund, owner of Don the Beachcomber for more than 20 years. He knows his business in a quiet, efficient manner.

John Stivers, with Cross-Blackwell company, New York City, manufacturers of delicacies, complains that he is having a hard time getting out of town. "There's something about Palm Springs that simply holds me on and on," he said at the Doll House while talking with Waltham Clark who with Bob Bone-steel of El Mirador were toasting Mrs. Waltham Clark in celebration of her birthday.

Dwight Patridge elderly gentleman stopped to chat with Eddie Davidson in the Chi Chi and then Eddie told me the story. Mr. Patridge has lived at The Desert Inn for 20 years, said Eddie. "And I knew when the inn closed because on the same day Mr. Patridge would appear at my hotel and check in for the Summer. Came Winter time, he would move back."

So many people know George E. Cameron Jr. one of my new bosses. Have to watch your step Bill. Remember that, says I to myself. Remember!

CADILLAC'S Sedan de Ville, a four-door hardtop presented for the first time for 1956 at Plaza Motors, preserves the graceful Florentine window styling of two-door hardtops yet provides the roominess and four-door convenience of sedan models. Rear seat head and leg room in the Sedan de Ville is greater than in two-door hardtop models. The car features a new power train consisting of a new 285 horsepower engine and a controlled coupling Hydra-Matic transmission which is completely new in principle and mechanical parts.

Ohio Governor Lausche Looms as 'Dark Horse'

WASHINGTON (UP)— Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., said today he thinks there is a good chance that a "dark horse" may win the Democratic presidential nomination next year.

This comment to a reporter reflected a belief among many Democrats, particularly in the South, that the nomination may well go to someone other than the three now considered the strongest candidates.

These three are Adlai E. Stevenson, 1952 nominee, Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Sen. Richard B. Russell D-Ga., Mr. Southern Democrat in the Senate, suggested to reporters Tuesday that Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio was one "dark horse" possibility. He denied that he was launching a boom for Lausche or that he was ready yet to throw his support to any candidate.

Russell did say that Lausche is regarded in the South as a "middle of the road" where as other candidates are viewed as "a little far to the left." He also said he thinks Lausche would be a "very strong candidate" if nominated.

"Naturally, I would prefer a middle of the road candidate," he said.

LICENSE PLATE LOST

UP Poll Shows Stevenson Top Democratic Candidate

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UP)—Adlai E. Stevenson apparently has a big bulge over all comers in the Democratic party whereas Republicans have not yet swung in large numbers to any 1956 presidential favorite.

That statement is based upon an unusual sampling of political opinion just completed by the United Press.

FIFTEEN UNITED PRESS bureaus, each suitably located geographically, participated in this sampling. Each asked a given number of representative individuals to state who they believe to be at this time the most likely presidential candidate next year, assuming that President Eisenhower does not run.

It was stipulated that these individuals name not their own favorites but the persons they think most likely as of now to win the respective nominations. Participants were promised their opinions would not be attributed directly to them although their names would be listed.

THE UNITED PRESS polled 100 men in most fields of adult activity. There will be a later sampling of women's opinion. Reflecting the likely scramble for position in the GOP if Mr. Eisenhower steps aside, 13 Republicans received varying numbers of "first choice" votes. There were only six Democrats sharing "first choice" votes.

Here at a glance, are the leaders in the polling:

Democrats
Adlai E. Stevenson..... 55
Averell Harriman..... 31

Estes Kefauver..... 5

Republicans
Richard M. Nixon..... 36
Earl Warren..... 25
Thomas E. Dewey..... 6
Milton S. Eisenhower..... 6
William F. Knowland..... 5

It is worth noting that four of the first six among Republicans are from California: Nixon, Warren, Knowland and Knight.

Delegates Tell of State Work

Teenagers of today realize the problems of juvenile delinquency, and are really thinking and trying to help work out these problems, speeches made at Sacramento at the Boys and Girls State convention held recently show.

At a dinner given by the Owen Coffman Post 519, American Legion, sponsors of the youth-in-government meeting, the Palm Springs representatives who returned recently from Sacramento told of the work being done by teenagers for themselves.

They were Barbara Rosin, Clark Gardner, Marvin Gallen, Ken Reich, who was elected to a state office while there, and Lloyd Brubaker.

CAR CLOUTED

Theft of a pair of trousers, a shirt and three books from his car parked on North Palm Canyon Drive was reported to police Sunday by Sam Hinkle, 305 North Indian Avenue.

Patient Need Cited for Yes Votes on Bonds

Patients in need of proper hospital treatment are being treated by their physicians in homes and hotel rooms, or in beds placed in the hospital corridors because facilities are so crowded.

That was the statement made today by Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital Administrator, in outlining the hospital's need for increased facilities.

Henwood's statement was released by the Desert Hospital Citizens Committee, in urging a "Yes" vote next Tuesday, November 1, on the proposed $350,000 Hospital bonds.

Tom Kieley, insurance executive and chairman of the volunteer committee declared: "It is essential that our hospital facilities keep up with the constant growth of all the desert communities."

Kieley's appeal was joined by the Hospital bond chairmen of volunteer committees in Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, Thousand Palms, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert.

The voters are being asked to approve a program of expansion which will double the present patient capacity by a 22-bed wing and a new physical therapy department, added surgery facilities, and will increase the present X-ray and laboratory facilities and the present air-conditioning to permit full operation year-round.

The committee pointed out that 3000 more patients were treated at Desert Hospital in the fiscal year of 1954-55, which ended June 30, than in the first year of the Hospital District's operation, 1951-52.

However, it was emphasized a "Yes" vote Tuesday will not increase the present tax rate of 9 1/2 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Riverside Road Improvement No Benefit Here

The financing of the Eighth Street grade separation in Riverside, now under discussion before the County Board of Supervisors, will directly affect taxpayers in the Village, though they would derive no direct benefit in Palm Springs.

Supervisor Homer Varner, representative from the fourth district, addressed the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee in Coachella Monday night in regard to the cost to local residents of the road improvement within Riverside city limits.

Varner said that the four other districts in Riverside county about Riverside, and therefore would benefit from better traffic conditions, but that the fourth district does not.

He said that equal shares of road tax funds would be taken from each district to finance the County's share of the state-county project, which he estimated at just less than $2,000,000.

He told the committee members that 75 miles of new roads next year would be sacrificed if the Supervisors passed on the allocation. The fourth district's share would be about $500,000. He said the money could not be spent on new roads, but remaining funds would have to go for upkeep and improvements.

In order to continue the new-roads program in this district, the 20 cent road tax on property owners would have to be increased, perhaps back to 40 cents, as it was six years ago.

GIVEN SUSPENDED SENTENCE
Ruby Eugene Slade, 37, 625 Lacy Road, arrested on a charge of failure to register with police as a person with a criminal record, was given a 10 day suspended jail sentence and placed on one year probation, by Judge Eugene Therleau in justice court.

RALPH RENO must face trial on charges that he killed his stepmother. Reno was arrested in Reno, Nevada, after stabbing his father and abducting the woman.

Reno Must Face Bar Association to Meet Monday

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Ex-Convict Ralph H. Reno, 26, must stand trial for the strangulation murder of his attractive stepmother and the savage beating-stabbing of his father.

Municipal Judge John G. Barnes ordered Reno at a preliminary hearing Tuesday "to appear for Superior Court arraignment November 8 on charges of murder and assault with intent to commit murder. The former boxer was remanded to county jail without bail. Reno stabbed and beat his father, Andrew Reno, 57, with a gun butt October 12 after declaring he had done something to his stepmother, Mrs. Stella Reno, 36, that would get him the gas chamber. He was captured in Reno, Nevada, and led officers to a culvert where he had hidden his stepmother's body.

Guard Assailant After Threats

ONTARIO (UP)—Dairy worker Andrew Boonstra, 48, accused of trying to slay his wife and three sons in a spray of bullets, was guarded closely today after an anonymous caller threatened his life.

Sheriff's deputies transferred him from San Bernardino County Hospital to the county jail here Tuesday after the caller told hospital nurses over the phone, "I'm going to come and kill Boonstra myself."

Mrs. Ruby Marie Boonstra, 34, eight months pregnant, was shot eight times and her three-year-old son, Michael, was shot three times in the Boonstra home last Sunday.

Argument Results in Charges for Both

Harry Edwards, 31, and Willie Lee Riley, 23, both charged with assault with a deadly weapon as a result of an argument between them, were bound over to Superior court when appearing before Judge Eugene Therleau in justice court here.

Officers said that Edwards was charged with using a knife, and Riley a shotgun, but each claimed the other started the attack.

Desert Bar Association of Riverside county will hold its annual dinner meeting at 8 p.m., Monday, October 31, in the Chi Chi Blue Room.

Guest speakers will be Grant Cooper, prominent Los Angeles attorney and vice president of the State Bar Association. His topic will be "Ethics in the Practice of Criminal Law."

Other guests invited include the judges of the Appellate, Superior and Municipal courts, the district attorney and county counsel.

Alexander W. Staples, association president, will preside. Business portion of the meeting will consist of the election of the five trustees.

Elks to Hold Car Auction for Hospital

Thursday night Palm Springs will hold an auction on an automobile with all proceeds to go for the purchase of much needed equipment, at the Angels View Crippled Children's Hospital, at Desert Hot Springs.

The car, originally donated by Bill Ellis, was won by John Gallarini at last week's meeting, who redonated it to the lounge, in order to raise additional funds for this program. Gallarini is chairman of this event.

Exalted Ruler Bob Forsythe asks all Elks to attend this meeting which is for members only.

CHP Acquires 100 New Dodges

Speeders and other traffic law violators have troubled times ahead, it was learned today when the California Highway Patrol took delivery on part of a shipment of 100 new 1956 Dodges.

The Custom Royal sedans are identical with the car which recently swept the American stock car speed and endurance records in 14-day tests at Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah.

Equipped with the improved 230-horsepower Super Power Red Ram V-8 engine, the CHP Dodges are rated the fastest-starting car on the road. At Bonneville, the identical model ran well over 31,000 miles at an average speed of 93.51 mph. and without mechanical failure. The first 10,000 miles of the record run were accomplished at an average speed of 105.43 mph.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Comments by residents of the nation's capitol on the change in the national picture that has been brought about by President Eisenhower's illness, indicate that they have come to no definite conclusions about the situation. They have been accustomed to a new type of leadership in Ike, which they do not seem to see in any of the present possibilities. They are more inclined to wait for: (1) The President's announcement of his intentions, (2) Some indication of the strength which leaders in both parties can generate.

Some hope that a new leader will come along who can fire up the country like Ike did. It may well be that the man will come from the ranks of those frequently mentioned — or he could be a dark horse. It can happen fast. Dynamic leadership at a time like this can travel across the country like a prairie fire and even burn down strong forces in both parties.

The people, of course, do not select their candidates, but they are having more influence in recent years. The men selected at the big-party conventions may not be those the people would select, but the chances are good that they will have more to say about it in 1956.

The thoughts of the people will be centered on candidates for the next several months. If, however, no dominant personality comes forth to capture the imagination of the American people as Ike did, the election will be decided upon issues rather than candidates. This is pretty much true any way—but it quite likely will be even truer in the 1956 campaign. For that reason, people believe now that the Republicans stand a much better chance of winning than the Democrats because of prosperity and the likelihood that the Republican standard bearer will have Ike's blessing and support — and because the President's policies will be carried on.

Meanwhile, the people will be waiting and watching as they are now. Few seem to be inclined to jump on to anyone's bandwagon. They aren't too interested in going too deeply into the problem until President Eisenhower gives his all-important views on the subject.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

NIXON'S CRISIS

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat)

Ever so quietly and steadily, Vice President Nixon is gaining stature for 1956's nomination to the presidential post if Mr. Eisenhower steps down.

When politics begin simmering for party conventions and campaigns, little things mean big things. Thus Nixon's visit to Ike's bedside in Denver takes on a significance Republican and Democrat leaders will not miss.

Though Ike's condition improves consistently, visits with him are still by invitation-only affairs.

Nixon is the first and only cabinet recipient of such bid. This new evidence that the President relies on his word and objectivity contributes mightily to Nixon's prestige, whether or not Ike intended it so.

Ike has perhaps closer personal friends in the cabinet, and had he entertained any doubt whatever concerning Nixon's capabilities as stand-in president, he could have summoned one of them without stirring too much comment.

But it was Nixon Ike summoned to fill him in on the Security Council and Cabinet meetings held during his absence. The gesture was tantamount to an unqualified Eisenhower approval of Nixon's brief stewardship.

It may be significant, too, that the Communist Daily Worker chose the moment to blast Nixon as a dangerous presidential possibility and to urge an all-out stop Nixon campaign by the Reds. The savage attack should have the major effect of spot-lighting Nixon more favorably among loyal Americans, and help shear off the sort of lackadaisical view some voters have taken of him.

At this moment, then, Richard Nixon, like Ike, seems over the hump. The President's heart attack appears past, and his Vice President is past the crucial period during which he might have flubbed or gotten some presidential hint of disapproval. He did neither.

Instead the Vice President, catapulted to sudden power, eschewed attempts at spectacular hits and runs and came through solely with the sort of steady, inconspicuous competence that Ike likes in his "team."

The end of the Nixon "reign" may be weeks off, but the peril period during which Mr. Eisenhower could be confronted with no government problems whatever, is over.

Now Ike by invitation and inference has said "well done," and for the benefit of upcoming party conventions has reiterated his strong support for Nixon.

NEWBERRY, S. C. OBSERVER: "The greatest danger facing Americans today, discounting foreign aggression, is the insidious expansion of the powers of our central government and the gradual but obvious lessening of the powers of the individual states."

PAMPA, TEX., DAILY NEWS: "We are tremendously benefited by every new labor saving device. By the way, we are able to multiply our individual human energy to the point where one man plus tools, can produce things that many men require."

KINGSLEY, IOWA, NEWS-TIMES: "Some members of Congress are firmly convinced that lower taxation for corporations are essential to encourage industrial expansion essential to meet the nation's future needs. . . . Taxes necessarily are added to the price paid by the consumer for the products corporations manufacture."

LAKEVIEW, ORE., EXAMINER: "The well being of the people lays along the road of profit and business and the people's own continued control over government. It does not lay along the road of big government, and government control over the people."

And soon it's November. And time to remember. We're better day by day. All year we had pleasure. But we should all treasure. The thought of staying through May.

There are a score of things wrong with the above little effort but I can only think of a few now. Not as bad as the gentleman who, when asked if he'd like another drink, replied: "There are a thousand reasons why I shouldn't, but I can't think of any of them now."

In the first place, the above bit of blackface type seems too limp. Like my choices at the horse ovals.

Secondly, it's only yet November and a bit early to prate about staying through May.

Thirdly, why shouldn't November, or December or any of the other months for that matter, rate as high as May?

Fourthly, November is the 11th month of the year. May, the fifth. In other words, they are six months apart and according to meteorologists, should be alike. In fact, they are. November is a great month here, just like May.

Fifth—Most people stop when they get to a fifth and so shall I.

(What a way to make a living!)

CAME A NOTE yesterday. From a woman. Very derogatory. "The idea of mentioning little monsters when talking of your grandchildren! What kind of a granddad are you, anyway?" Well, my dear lady, that term was used in connotation of the greatest affection. I think that my grandsons are the greatest guys in the world. Believe me, there are no better than Buzzy, Billy and Ace, the corporation which owns the B. B. & A. railroad (O-gauge), of which I am chairman of the board. Let me explain: Bill Rashall and I have been close friends for more than a decade. I like him and I think he likes me. But you should hear us talk to each other on occasion. On second thought, maybe it would be best that you didn't.

CHIEF GUS KETTMANN has an idea to promote traffic safety in town. He has the power to plaster tickets right and left on traffic violators. But also believes that this won't solve the problem. It will just make motorists resentful of the police and cause them to cheat a little every time they can. So he is mulling over the idea of enlisting the aid of motorists themselves. Get them to realize that to play it safe and be good to the other guys is going to be good for them. A campaign, the chief believes, will do more than all of the police cars and motorcycles, reduce accidents, be a matter of thrift in the way of traffic fines—and save life and limb. I think his campaign will do a lot of good. We still call Palm Springs a Village but its traffic is city-fied and should be treated accordingly.

LIBRARY NOTES

WILLARD PRICE

Willard Price is a tall, compact man with a distinctly professional look. A desert dweller — he lives in Cathedral City during those brief intervals when he does rest from travel — he is one of that fast disappearing phenomena, a really good conversationalist. Nothing is more stimulating than to spend time talking with him, for he has the gift of selecting from his varied and exciting peregrinations those items pertinent to the discussion and relating them with an urbanity and wit that charms the listener. A catholic taste and deep knowledge of wide areas of the globe make him an enlightening raconteur. He gives you observation and facts, making no moral judgments of right or wrong; only this is or is not, never this ought to be.

Perhaps the next best thing to talking with Mr. Price is reading his books, for even in prose he succeeds in maintaining his chatty and informative manner. His books move along with the ease and clarity of conversation — and this is no mean accomplishment as any writer will tell you. Years of travel have given him a cosmopolitan point of view, a truly scientific dispassionateness of observation.

MR. PRICE'S NEWEST book, just published by The John Day Company, is "Adventures in Paradise." It tells the story of the six months he and his wife, Mary, spent in the South Pacific. Of this area Mr. Price says: "The word 'Paradise' has been more consistently applied to the mid-Pacific islands than to any other region on earth," and proceeds to show why. Even his section headings are intriguing: Raced by a Whale; Flustered Hips; To steer a Wayward Woman; She Was Alive Yesterday; Elysium for Bachelors; Love Making with an Eye to Economy.

Without avoiding mention of island drawbacks (mosquitoes, the fact that long reaches and short resources made accidents more likely, the fantastic legal administration, the political implications of the brand new Japanese sponsored fishing industry in Samoa, Mr. Price enhances the glamorous appeal of this part of the world. The escapists will find their dreams heightened and colored by his description of South Sea Island life. This is the world of Stevenson and Gauguin, of Nordhoff and Hall and Maugham; and it loses none of its glitz in Mr. Price's retelling.

"ADVENTURES IN PARADISE" has 24 pages of photographs and 7 maps. In addition to being a good writer, Mr. Price is a skilled photographer and his island portraits seem to capture the charm and character of the land and the natives. Normally apt to skip over the pictures in a travel book, I found myself going back again and again to look at these wonderful island faces and to reread the Prices' comment on Tahiti, where they were tipped by the help: "It's a new experience, one that touches the heart, and makes us wonder if this sinful paradise does not have something to teach people of colder climes and temperaments who had been strong on virtue but short on love."

It is interesting to see that Mr. Price has received eminent recognition for "Adventures in Paradise," which was enthusiastically reviewed in The New York Times of October 12 by Orville Prescott and also by Perry Wood of the Chicago Tribune.

Although much given to understatement, the writer himself comes through his writing as a man of courage and resourcefulness in the face of danger and as a seasoned traveler who not only takes everything in stride but who enjoys it mightily as well.

Dr. Robert W. Benson, supervisor of acoustic design at the Armour Research Foundation of the Illinois Institute of Technology, on some findings made in the study of noise in offices:

"When it's noisy the workers can't talk so much," and "If the typewriter doesn't make any noise, the boss can't tell if his secretary isn't working."

It Happened Last Night

BY EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The B.W. got so twittery about nice-looking, Dixie-talking Andy Griffith's performance in "No Time For Sergeants" that I suppose I better write about how he became a star overnight or she'll say I only care about girls—which I do.

Andy—a 28-year-old ex-North Carolina school teacher married to a teacher is to get star billing within a week in the new B'way show. . . . and Warner Bros. are being asked $100,000 for his services in a movie based on the play.

"Look at this Mickey Mouse watch the crew give me, I wouldn't take nuthin' for it," Andy a U. of N. Carolina graduate who manages to be sort of a Southern Herb Shriver, said the other night after the whole cast had bowed toward him at the curtain call—a gesture very rarely seen on B'way.

Andy had some folks from the Baptist choir he used to sing in down at Chapel Hill, here for the opening. He played the kind of a Southern mountaineer soldier who could say one of his officers "had R.O.T.C. and I think he's still got a touch of it."

TAFFY TUTTLE claims that Arlene Dahl there's plugging "Slightly Scarlet" sure knows how to get a lot out of a bathing suit. . . . Reminds me of when Billy Sunday said an evening gown is a dress that has a neckline where its bellyband ought to be.

"There are two kinds of gal," claims Joey Adams in "Strictly for Laughs," the new humor book, "those who carry on. . . and bridesmaids."

PAN MAIL: "I read your wife's column about your toothache, and after reading this enterprising effort of hers and comparing her work with yours, I suggest you let her write the column and you stay home and cook supper" —Paul Morris, 1335 B'way, NYC. . . .

From Fort Worth: "Oil: When I showed the hotel mgr. your picture in the paper and said I knew you, I thought for a wonderful moment he was going to reduce the rate. Instead he gave me the same rate and the worst room in the house. Next time I see your picture in the paper, I'll keep still!" —Homer Crov.

Says Fred Allen: "The Towns send Plan was a failure in this country—do you think it will have more success in London?"

The Tommy Dorsey's separation plans may play heck with Ed Murrow's schedule; he was going to Person-to-Person the in Greenwich, Conn., next month. Tommy, Jimmy and Mom Dorsey may do the bit instead of Tommy and wife Janie, who's talking divorce. Then again, they may patch it up, and Murrow could have a reconciliation, lovey-dovey interview.

Beatrice Lillie's got NBC and CBS hot after her to TV spectaculars and Eddie Dowling, her mgr., has been cabling U.S. rope for a reply. I snatched a postcard from Eddie's hand that told how business-like Bea is. It showed Bea in slacks holding three kittens and, in answer to the cables, said, "Will call you from London in a week's time. Love to Boots (Eddie's mother) and yourself."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL. . .

Rocky Marciano ate about $10 worth of steak at the Copa at 1:30 a.m. while Nat (King) Cole, Sheeky Greene and the Paulette Sisters opened the dandy new show. Jayne Mansfield was there with her mom (from Dallas) and admirer Henry David Epstein.

Perry Como's sorry the papers have built up a "rating battle" between him and Jackie Gleason; he says they're friends and he misses Jackie's show. . . . Glamour gal Nancy Berg's off to Israel. . . . to write. . . . John Hodiak had planned to visit NY in a couple of weeks. Ironically, he hesitated about leaving his parents in California, fearing for their health! . . . French star Fernanda Montell returned to the St. Regis for a 5th engagement.

Frank Sinatra groans around as though half blind on the set of "The Man With The Golden Arm." Drops are put into his eyes to make him have the glazed glance look of an addict. . . . Little Joel Gray's around with big Barbara Nichols (at Glamour).

Dick Haymes' brother Bob will fly him to Chicago in his own plane for his date at the Chez Paree. . . . Marilyn Monroe's our No. 1 Glamour Girl, but she sent out for some nose drops for a very bad cold just like human beings. . . . Jack Benny's doing the Chrysler, not GM, auto show, along with Marilyn Maxwell, who'll be making her last appearance for a while as she's expecting a baby in April.

Ima Washout, the Kansas editor, claims she'll never wear those new tapered slacks, explaining, "I don't taper where the slacks do."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "Many Girl Scouts grow up to be women drivers who do one good turn a day." —Eydie Gorme.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "A mother who arranges a match for her daughter usually intends to referee it, too." —Elsie Rhodes.

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — The Interstate Commerce Commission, one of the oldest federal regulatory agencies and largest, is headed for a massive shake-up.

Five of the 11 commissioners will be out by January 1. All are hold-overs from the Truman Administration, with unexpired terms of several months to four years. They are: Hugh W. Cross, R., Illinois, chairman; Martin K. Elliott, R., Indiana; J. Monroe Johnson, D., South Carolina; J. Haden Allredge, D., Alabama; Richard F. Mitchell, D., Iowa.

Mitchell is considering an offer from an Eastern railroad. Another of the group is under scrutiny by the Senate Government Operations Committee. Beyond confirming that, the investigators refuse to say anything about this hush-hush proceedings.

The Administration has been seeking to reorganize the ICC for a long time. Last year an attempt was made to oust Truman appointees. But it got nowhere when Commissioner Johnson flatly refused to quit, and threatened a court battle. His term runs out in December.

Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks has been in the forefront of this drive, working closely with White House Secretary Sherman Adams.

Weeks headed a cabinet committee set up by President Eisenhower to formulate new transportation policies. The group proposed a number of far-reaching changes; among them repeal of transportation excise taxes, tolls on inland waterways improved by the government, and curtailment of rate-making and other regulatory powers of the ICC.

Treasury Secretary Humphrey and several other cabinet members sharply challenged this report, and its publication was delayed for months. When finally sent to Congress for legislative action, it immediately ran into strong opposition there. The issue is still hanging fire in committee.

ON THE GRIDDLE — Japan is making two spectacular proposals to the U.S.: An increase in its immigration quota now fixed at 185 annually; and huge timber cutting rights in Alaska.

SIGNIFICANT POLL — A statewide poll of farmer attitude on national policies and politics.

by the Pulitzer Prize-winning Lincoln Evening Journal & Nebraska State Journal, has so far produced the following results: "Crucial farm vote uneasy but uncommitted for 1956. The survey reveals that 26 percent of the farmers interviewed have not yet decided which party they will favor in next year's election. This uncommitted segment could well be the key to which way the farm vote will go in 1956. . . . It is significant that Secretary Benson's flexible price-support program is not particularly at issue." . . .

Defense Secretary Wilson has ordered $25,000,000 of National Guard funds be withheld for economy purposes. This blocks a 17,000 increase in Guard strength authorized by the last Congress.

Mrs. Belcheimer warned her new maid, "I never waste words. If I wiggle my finger, it means you are to come to me immediately."

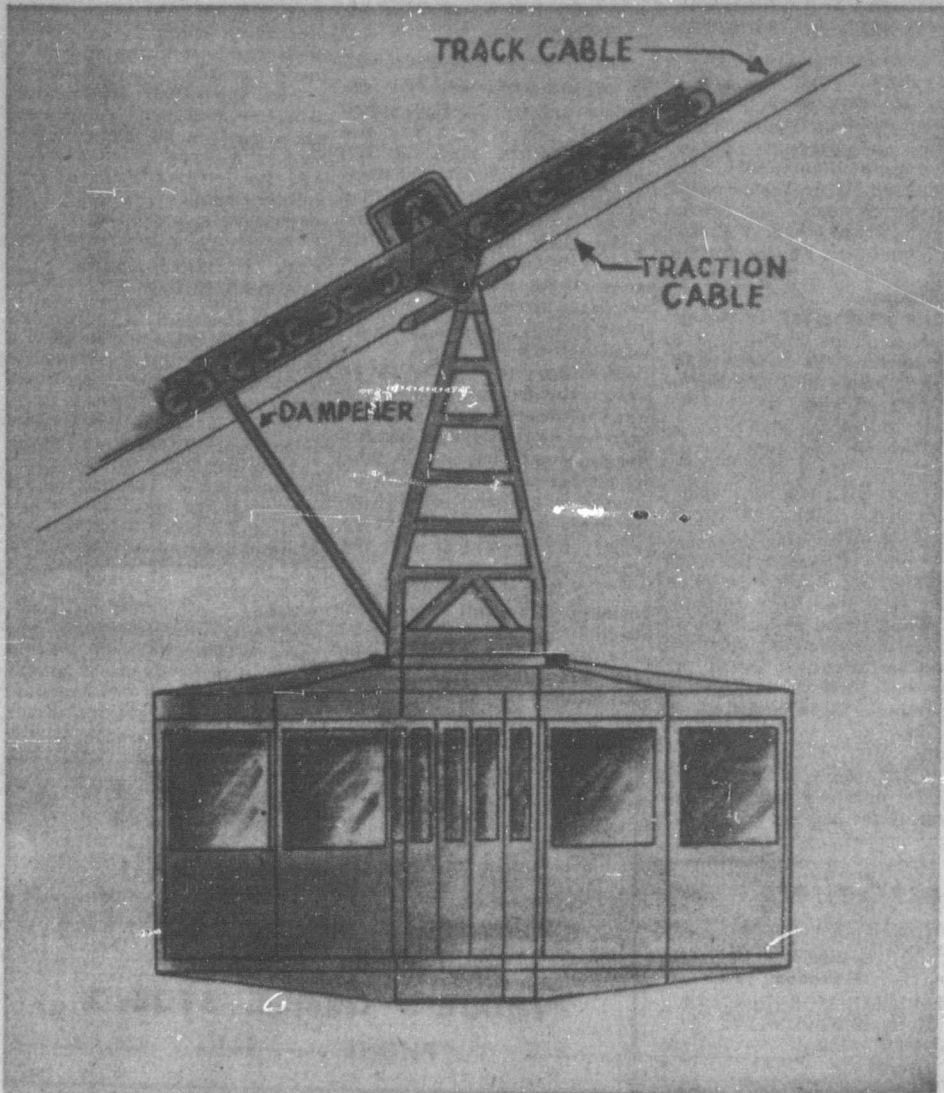

"Yas'm," agreed the new maid cheerfully, "but if I wiggle my head back, it means I ain't coming."

Deviled both by his conscience and his wife, old Mose shuffled up to his boss and admitted, "Mister Smith, I done stole this rope from you some time back, but now I wants to give it back." The boss proved a forgiving soul, and Mose went home feeling better very minute. "Mandy," he told his wife, "you know I feel so good 'bout telling Mister Smith about the rope, I'm beginning to think that one day I'll tell him that when I stole it, there was a cow on the other end of it!"

"I sure pleased my Pop today," boasted Buster. "Comin' home on the bus, I got up and offered my seat to a pretty girl. I'd been sittin' on Pop's lap."

held yesterday in Palm Springs and the day before in Idyllwild; they have blocked the Authority in their attempt to acquire rights-of-way; and even set up, it is reported, a "Citizens Committee" to raise funds to carry on their fight.

At the Legislative hearing here yesterday, the Authority disclosed a lot of information that heretofore has been kept under cover in order to allow progress of the project.

AT THE HEARING which was under the chairmanship of Assemblyman Thomas Erwin, (R-Puente), Eugene G. Nisbet (D-Upland), and Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), fired questions at members of the Authority, answers to which brought out information that the Authority was standing on "pretty solid ground."

Lockwood told the subcommittee that the constant attack by the conservation groups on the Tramway, would only end in making it very difficult to sell the revenue bonds by "scaring off potential buyers."

Presently, the market for revenue bonds is not good, and the Authority has been holding back from making the sale. In a meeting last night with Earl Coffman, chairman of the Authority, Francis Crocker, secretary, and Lockwood, the men said that when the revenue bond market is "ripe" the bonds will be sold. As soon as the $13,000,000 is in the hands of the agency construction of the Tramway will begin.

THIS AMOUNT of money will cover the complete construction of the project, allowing additional money to cover interest on the bonds for the two years it will take to complete the construction.

In establishing the feasibility of the project in the minds of members of the subcommittee here yesterday, Assemblyman Unruh asked Lockwood "what kind of traffic would make the project feasible?" and was told that the cars could carry a capacity of 400 passengers per hour to the top of the mountain. This would mean, taking into consideration that each patron of the Tramway has to return to the valley floor by sundown, that the lift could handle some 3000 passengers per day. "If we average only 1000 per day, it would be ample to provide costs of operation," Lockwood said. The trip will take 15 minutes from the floor of the desert to the top of Mount San Jacinto.

Later in the meeting, Eugene Nisbet asked the authority if they "feel a compromise could be made with the 'foes' of the Tramway?" and was answered with an emphatic "no," and it was added "a compromise is

Public Utilities Group Delays Water Hearing

Public Utilities Commission announced this week that it has postponed from Monday to November 21 a hearing on the application of Palm Springs Outpost Water Company, a corporation, to extend its operations into adjacent territory near Palm Springs.

The hearing will be held in the council chambers at the city offices.

ground. Estimates show that the car can carry about 400 persons an hour or 3,000 per day to the top and back again. It will take about 15 minutes to make the trip one way.

impossible because they (the organizations against the project) have contradicted every move they have made in the past. "What they want to do is sabotage this whole thing," said Lockwood.

AT THIS POINT a question as to the authenticity of the conservationists' claim that the top of Mount San Jacinto is a "wilderness area" was brought before the committee, and Assemblyman Erwin said that an area must be declared such by an act of the legislature. Lockwood said that this had not been done.

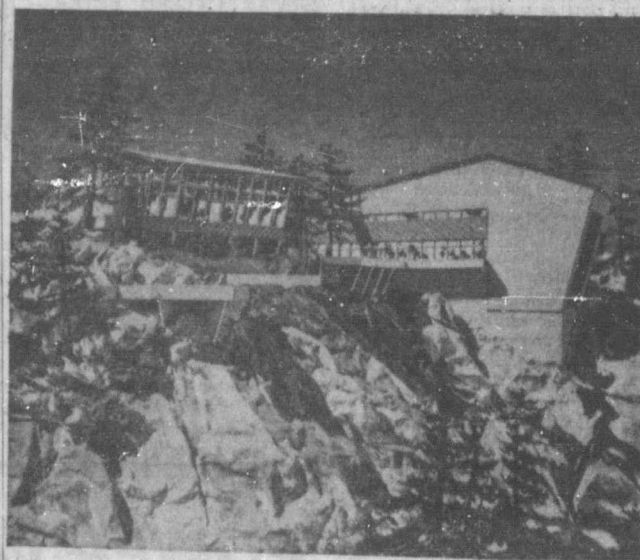

The subcommittee on beaches and parks of the Assembly Committee on Conservation, Planning and Public Works, will compile all the information gathered during the hearing of the past two days, along with further information to be secured in Sacramento, and present it, without a recommendation of action, to the full committee.

IN CLOSING the hearing here, Erwin said that opponents will continue to carry on their fight against the Tramway, and that "it's never settled and never will be settled until it is built. The conservation groups are very powerful and will continue to come before the legislature. It is just one of those things we have in a democracy."

The Authority was happy as the hearing broke up, following a luncheon at the Racquet Club. They felt that once again they were victorious in their long fight to build "the eighth wonder of the world," an aerial Tramway up the steep slopes of Mt. San Jacinto from the floor of the Coachella Valley.

The Authority now looks forward with great optimism to the completion and final use by thousands of persons of the giant lift.

TERMINUS OF THE Tramway, the cars will enter this building and discharge its passengers. The building will house the station facilities, a restaurant, and lounge.

THE FIRST STATION to be seen by patrons of the lift will be situated in the floor of the desert in Chino Canyon. When a passenger enters the car at this station, he will ride up the cable for about 7 1/2 minutes to a mid transfer point, and then proceed up. The Tramway will be built in two sections.

AERIAL VIEW OF Mount San Jacinto from the opposite side seen by Palm Springs residents shows the view of the Coachella Valley in the background. The snow covered peaks of the mountain will make skiing and other winter sports possible.

West Meets East in New Fashions

NEW YORK—(UP)—This season East meets West, in defiance of Rudyard Kipling. All you have to do is look at the way western fashions copy the Orient.

Not that the American woman will wear a kimono or sari exactly like that of her sister in the East. But designers have added such touches as the slit hemline and mandarin collar of the Chinese, the rich colors and fabrics of the whole East, the obi of the Japanese had jackets or tunics worn over slim mandarin pants.

You'll also see the thong sandal—with spike heels yet. The sari of the Hindu woman has been adapted for sportswear. There is even a sari half slip, made of all silk print in metallic gold highlights and the warm colors of the East.

The true sari is a long cloth wrapped around the waist and concealing most of the body. The cloth is draped full in front and wound over the bosom and left shoulder.

But not as American designers have adapted it. Some designers in the higher-priced bracket show sari-like drape with stole across the shoulder. Less expensive ones skip the elaborate draping and concentrate on oriental-like fabrics.

New York manufacturer Henry Rosenfeld makes sari separates. Designer Jeanette Harris said the skirts are full, the blouses cut on surplice lines. Metallic fabrics and sharp colors such as fuchsia pink and turquoise blue highlight the line.

PLAY IT SAFE—DON'T USE PRESCRIPTIONS OF OTHERS
BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Your best friend may turn out to be your worst enemy if he gives you a medicine filled especially for him.

This is not uncommon practice among parents of small children who have been cured of colds, according to the Arner Company, pharmaceutical manufacturers. People with skin disorders also frequently assume that a salve which has helped them may help others. They do not realize there are many different types of skin ailments.

A prescription is a specific medication for a specific ailment at a specific time, it was pointed out.

Woman's Hobby Makes 'Little UN' of Bridal Dolls

By ELIN LAKE
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(UP)—If the United States ever decides to create the office of International bridal consultant, Corinne Friedman surely would get the job.

The vivacious New Yorker is an authority on wedding customs of the world. She can tell you how a bride should look on her wedding day in Thailand, Uruguay, or Saudi Arabia with authentically reproduced dolls. Sixty of these lovely miniature brides—each representing one of the 60 members of the United Nations—are on display at UN headquarters in New York.

In addition, she has doll brides from 30 other countries, and 100 other dolls dressed in other types of native garb.

Much Research

Hundreds of hours of research are behind Mrs. Friedman's explanation of why a bride in Tibet may wed half a dozen husbands at once (there's an extreme shortage of women in Tibet so polygamy is permitted); or why an Indian girl in Guatemala is decked out in so many worldly goods on her wedding day she can hardly stagger to the altar. (All her life, she has planned for this day, collecting her dowry. All she owns, she wears).

Mrs. Friedman said she always had been interested in history, geography and cultures of various nations. But she first began making foreign dolls when a niece from a displaced persons camp in Europe came to live with her. She has two children of her own.

World Sales

"The new member of the family was so sad," Mrs. Friedman explained. "I began making dolls to cheer her up."

A local librarian heard of the hobby and encouraged Mrs. Friedman to exhibit her work.

Now, the bridal dolls are sold all over the world, but she always keeps a group available for use by charitable organizations, orphanages and museums for exhibit.

From her research, Mrs. Friedman has found that brides in central Europe are the most elaborately dressed. Scandinavian brides rate a close second—"apparently they inherited their love of jewelry from Viking ancestors," she explained.

"Eventually, I hope to have a doll for every nation," said Mrs. Friedman.

So far, she has a good start.

Charel De Thomee has returned to the Village after spending four weeks in Beverly Hills and at the beach. In Beverly Hills he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Kavanaugh who are frequent visitors here. The Kavanahs will be remembered by many who saw them strolling down Palm Canyon with their pet tiger a few months ago.

Two Brave Women, Former Fliers, to Try Columbus' Route in Ketch

By JOHN M. BERNIER
United Press Staff Correspondent

FRESNO, Calif. (UP)—Two

American housewives intend to prove that women are just as able as men, even when it comes to discovering continents.

The women, who met while serving as World War II pilots with the Women's Air Service, are Mrs. Bruce Macy, of Fresno, Calif., and Mrs. Eunice Bogdanovich, who currently is living in Europe.

They plan to sail in November from Paois, Spain, in a 58 foot ketch on the same Atlantic route followed by Columbus on his 1492 voyage.

"Of course we don't expect to discover any new continents," Mrs. Macy said, "but at least we will show that women could have made the trip as easily as men."

On the trip, however, the women will have a crew of three men who were recruited in Europe by Mrs. Bogdanovich's husband. They also will have one item on board that was not included on any of Columbus' three vessels—an engine.

But Mrs. Macy said she doubts if they will have to rely on the engine's power, except possibly for leaving or entering ports. But if necessary they will carry fuel for cruising almost 1,000 miles.

The boat, the Renegade, will be stocked with six weeks provisions and will be replenished at each port of call. The two wartime fliers plan to sail southward parallel to the Portuguese coast to Africa and then swing out into the Atlantic and make their first stop at the Canary Islands. From the Canaries they want the trade winds to push them into the West Indies, just 443 years behind Columbus.

Mrs. Macy said when she received the letter from her wartime colleague asking her to join her on the voyage, her first reaction was, "impossible, what about my two daughters?"

But her husband told her she probably never would have another chance and finally persuaded her to go.

"The thought of crossing the Atlantic in a small boat doesn't frighten me," she said, "even if I've done very little sailing before. My seagoing experience is limited to a few fishing trips off the California coast and some motorboating on lakes."

DESIGNER'S DECOR TIP

NEW YORK—(UP)—Decorating note: Fashion designer Charles James turned one of the materials of his trade into draperies for his high-ceilinged showroom in Manhattan. He used white pellant, the synthetic dress and suit lining and stiffener, hanging it criss-cross fashion like ruffled curtains. He said any housewife could use the same idea for dramatic effect at a large window-area. And the felt-like finish of the material makes hemming unnecessary.

NOW COLORING BOOKS ARE ON THE PAN

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Two art professors have tossed children's coloring books into the "mustn't touch" pile formerly reserved for horror comic books.

George K. Stark and Harlan E. Hoffa of Buffalo State Teacher's College were firm in their denunciation of coloring books as a means of amusing a child.

"Coloring books are completely devoid of any relationship to the child's basic experiences," they warned.

"They dictate subjects, matter, style, adult standards and taste, leaving no room for the child to make decisions or expand his horizons and capabilities in his own personal fashion."

DELICIOUS PUMPKIN PIES

Grandmother's old say: "There's more than one way to . . . . .," served her well and many times when she wished to make a point.

She made a mighty delicious pumpkin pie. And she might have proclaimed, "There's more than one way to make a pumpkin pie, too."

With a collection of good tested recipes you can serve that fall favorite often. And you can make those pies more than one way.

GRANDMOTHER'S FAVORITE PUMPKIN PIE

2 eggs
1 1/2 C. canned pumpkin
1/2 C. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. cloves
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 1/2 C. (tall can) evaporated milk, undiluted
1 8-in. unbaked pastry shell
Beat eggs slightly. Blend in pumpkin. Mix sugar, salt and spices and stir into pumpkin mixture. Add evaporated milk and mix well. Pour into pastry shell. Bake at 425° for 15 min. Reset oven heat control to 350° and continue baking about 40 min. or until knife inserted near center comes out clean.

PECAN CRUMBLE PUMPKIN PIE

1 8-in. unbaked pastry shell
1/2 C. brown sugar
1/2 C. white sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. cloves
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 C. canned pumpkin
1 C. milk
1/2 C. evaporated milk or cream
1/2 C. brown sugar

MAGIC PUMPKIN PIE

1 tbsp. butter
1/4 C. chopped pecans
Make pastry shell and chill it while you make filling. Combine sugars, salt and spices and mix into eggs. Add pumpkin, milk and evaporated milk or cream and stir until smooth. (The last three ingredients will be used later.) Pour into chilled pastry shell. Bake at 425° for 45 to 50 min.

About 10 min. before the pie is done, crumble the last three ingredients together and sprinkle over the pie. Return to oven to complete baking.

CALIFORNIA PUMPKIN PIE

1 C. brown sugar
1 tsp. flour
1/2 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 C. canned pumpkin
3 eggs, slightly beaten
1 1/2 tsp. grated orange rind
1 1/2 tsp. grated lemon rind
1/2 C. orange juice
1 C. undiluted evaporated milk
1 8-in. unbaked pie shell

The New LaPaz Hotel Will Open its Gates on Friday

When the new La Paz opens its pink gates on Friday, it won't be just the opening of another fine resort hotel here but the presentation of a mode of living, according to the owner Ralph Wilcox Taylor.

A resident of Palm Springs, Newport, Rhode Island, and Palm Beach, Florida, Taylor came to the Village two years ago for health reasons. He purchased the old Van Nuys estate "Villa Algeria" on Tahquitz Drive and settled down to the pleasant routine of Palm Springs in the Winter and Newport in the Summer. The purchase of LaPaz brought him into even closer relationship with the Village.

It is his aim to present a gracious yet relaxed way of living to discriminating people who desire only the best in food, service and surroundings. "Palm Springs should take its place along with Newport and Palm Beach as one of the Queen cities of the social world and I intend to do everything in my power to bring this to pass," Taylor said this week.

LaPaz is surrounded by 14 acres of grounds with a nine-hole pitch and putt golf course, private stables, tennis court and swimming pool.

The "Spur and Sable" lounge provides an a la carte menu. Its fireplace corner and gilded piano and bar provide a friendly atmosphere.

Al fresco devotees will enjoy the front patio which has been transformed into a sidewalk cafe with wrought iron furniture brought out from Newport. The main dining room will be premiered shortly before the Christmas season.

Managing Director Jack Linthicum, with 30 years of hotel experience, also makes Palm Springs his home. A native of Maryland and a descendant of Lady Baltimore, he is a graduate of St. John's College. He has managed hotels in England, Spain, Italy and Portugal as well as such American hostels as the famed Cavalier at Virginia Beach, the Post House at Southampton and the Woodhull at Bar Harbor, Maine. His son, David, an expert horseman and foreign car enthusiast, makes his home here with his father.

Franklin McManus of Boston and Scituate, Massachusetts, resigned his position as manager of Back Bay Boston's Hemenway Hotel, to assume his managerial duties at LaPaz. A graduate of Harvard, McManus is the brother of George S. McManus, travel and hotel manager for the Boston Globe, and another brother, John J. McManus, is editor in chief of the Boston Post.

Aided by a top staff, gathered from all over the country, these three gentlemen will combine their talents, traditions and experience to make LaPaz one of the great hotels.

House guests at the Judge Gene Theriault home this week are the Judge's father, Joseph Theriault and brother, Edward Theriault, of Long Beach.

Luncheon will be served at noon and each school has been asked to prepare a short skit to depict some phase of Junior Red Cross, to be given during the lunch hour.

A general session at 1:30 p.m. will include reports of the morning session. Three subjects will be discussed at the 2 p.m. meeting on "Go Ahead in the Senior Program," "Go Ahead in the Junior Program," and "Go Ahead and Be Prepared." A final summary on these subjects will close the workshop.

E. Crooke, chairman of the Palm Springs Junior Red Cross, and Eida Murphy, teacher at the high school, are in charge of the arrangements.

This is the third tri-chapter workshop. The first was held at Sherman Institute and the second at Redlands. The workshops proved so popular and beneficial to the students and JRC program that this workshop is being held at the request of the students. The program was prepared by a committee of students from the three chapters who attended the sessions last year.

Rotary United in Project of Understanding

Rotary Clubs in 92 countries and geographical regions throughout the world are united in an endeavor to promote international understanding, good will and peace.

This was the message of H. Walker of Vista, Governor of District No. 163 of Rotary International, in addressing the Rotary Club of Palm Springs yesterday noon at Sam Taylor's Tennis Club following a conference with local Rotary officers and committee chairman.

In addition to the activities of Rotary's 8,700 clubs within their own communities to promote this objective, Walker explained, Rotary International has spent more than $1,750,000 in recent years through its program of student fellowships, which enable outstanding college graduates to study for one year in countries other than their own, as ambassadors of good will. Since 1947, when this program was established, 709 Rotary Fellowships have been awarded to students in 57 countries.

"With fellowship and service to others as its keynote, Rotary provides a common ground for 414,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of differing nationalities or political or religious beliefs," the Rotary District Governor emphasized.

"In addition to the promotion of international understanding," Walker continued, "special emphasis is being placed by Rotary Clubs this year on activities of their own communities which will furnish leadership in youth programs, raise standards in businesses and professions, promote traffic safety, develop good citizenship and build better rural-urban relationships."

Indian Wells Trailer Park is now under the operation and new ownership of Frank Neck of Los Angeles and Edward Lesner formerly of Chicago.

Now nearing completion are improvements amounting to more than $30,000, it was announced. These improvements include a new swimming pool, additional trailer spaces and landscaping.

Neck came to the desert from Los Angeles where he was engaged in cosmetic sales and the operation of a trailer court in that area.

Lesner spent most of his life in the construction business and was a building contractor in Chicago.

"We plan to make Indian Wells Trailer Park one of the nicest places in which to live," the partners jointly announced. Both of them reside at the park with their families. They also plan to take an active part in trailer park activities in the Palm Springs resort area.

Jaycees Start Olympic Fund Drive Campaign

Palm Springs Junior Chamber of Commerce this week joins with other Jaycees throughout the country in a project to raise funds to send our 1956 Olympic team to Australia.

This is a continuation of the campaign started last year by the national group, at which time funds were raised to send the United States athletes to the Pan-American games in Mexico City.

Herb Esbitt, Jaycee president, said that the campaign will continue indefinitely, with plans to be made for concentrated fund raising efforts at service clubs, in the downtown area, and at local sporting events.

Total goal of all Jaycees in the United States is $1,000,000, estimated required amount to adequately finance the Olympic trip next year.

Esbitt pointed out that the United States is the only country where the Olympic team is not sponsored by the government, and urged all citizens to contribute to the campaign.

New, Modern Buick Garage Opens Nov. 1

Palm Springs Buick, owned by George Roberson, will open its new, modern garage and showroom on Tuesday, November 1, at the new location in Palm Springs Heights, 68-406 Highway 111.

And two days later, November 4, the new 1956 model Buick will go on display to further enhance the beauty of the new facilities.

Palm Springs Buick, formerly the Desert Inn Garage, is Riverside County's oldest Buick dealer, and Roberson has been connected with the operation for 35 of those years.

"Time marches on" and along with other businesses which found it necessary to expand operations, Palm Springs Buick was forced to seek another location which would offer the maximum in service and sales possibilities to area customers.

The new location is just five minutes from downtown Palm Springs, and cars for service will be picked up, or service cars will be available for use at all times.

The new service department will handle all types of repairs, including engine overhaul, carburetion and ignition tune-up, lubrication, wheel alignment, tire service and wheel balancing, washing, polishing and body repair. The stock department will carry a full line of parts for Buicks and General Motors trucks.

Palm Springs Buick, besides being the oldest Buick dealer in the county, also carries this honor for GMC trucks.

Roberson invited everyone to visit the new, modern facilities offered by Palm Springs Buick in its new location at 68-406 Highway 111, and issued a special invitation for everyone to inspect the new 1956 Buick on November 4.

Barber's Magic Wand Present of Andreason

By DALE ANDREASON
Golf Instructor, El Mirador Hotel

With the famed Ryder Cup International golf matches scheduled within a few days now, this story concerns the Cinderella Man of the American team and how a putter changed into a magic wand for one of them.

I remember so well the struggle that Tommy Bolt had for several years while trying to make ends meet on the tournament tour.

FORMER pitcher for Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cubs, Cal McLish (above), 29-year-old righthander, has been purchased by the Cleveland Indians from San Diego of the Pacific Coast league. McLish had a 17-14 record in the Coast loop last year. (International)

It is a hard rough struggle to try to make it alone, and with a wife and children it is really tough.

I know there were times when Tommy felt like calling it quits, and then there was a day that he almost went to work for Jackie Burke Jr. in the Summer as his assistant, with the thought of playing tournaments only in the Winter. He didn't go to work for Jackie, however, but kept on struggling on the tour.

IT IS REALLY WONDERFUL to see Tommy and the Mrs. today with a big beautiful car, trunks of wonderfully tailored clothes, money in the bank and a tremendous desire for him to be the best in his field.

It seems only yesterday that I was practicing and playing with the little "tiger" from Wilshire Country Club, Jerry Barber.

So many people said he had no chance. He was too little, he didn't hit the ball well enough and he didn't have enough money to keep playing. This didn't stop the little man or even slow him down. Maybe Ben Hogan spent more time hitting balls but no one that I ever have known, spent more time chipping and putting.

I am happy to say that I feel that maybe I was a little instrumental in helping Jerry. I had a putter that I was quite proud of. I had very carefully selected the head from several hundred at Fred Matzies putter factory in Los Angeles. However, I couldn't find a stiff enough shaft to suit me so I put the putter head in the trunk of my car until one day I noticed Herman Kaiser with several putters testing them on the putting green. As almost any golfer would do I went over and looked them over. About the third one I picked up had just the stiff shaft that I had been looking for. I happily paid Herman's price for it. I went to the car, got the putter head I had been saving and headed for the pro-shop. I knocked the head off the putter with the stiff shaft but when I tried to put this stiff shaft in my favorite putter head I found that it was too big. I got mad, put the putter head in the vise, picked up a hammer and drove the shaft into the putter head.

TO MY DISAPPOINTMENT I didn't putt very well with it and finally it went into the back of the car.

One day Barber came over and wanted to try out my stiff shafted putter. He was my buddy so I said sure. A little later he came back and wanted to know if he could cut it off as the shaft kept hitting him in the stomach. I told him to go ahead. The next time I saw it it was so short that if I tried to use it I would have had to get on my knees. So Jerry Barber inherited the putter and used it like it was a Magic Wand.

Besides Jerry Barber's chipping and putting, he has learned to think as well on the golf course as any pro playing today. I have never seen him lose his temper. I remember playing with him in a tournament where his first drive went one hundred yards in the deep rough. He calmly picked up his tee and stepped back for me to shoot. When he hit his second shot it went about a hundred and fifty yards into a big trap. There was not a sign of disturbance on his face. He hit his next shot across the fairway into a big ditch and without batting an eyelash he dug the ball out of the ditch to about 30 feet short of the hole and calmly knocked the putt in for a par 5. He shot 65 on that round and finished second in the tournament.

Yes, Jerry Barber is a little man on the outside but on the inside he is a GIANT.

Mrs. Copeland RC Net Hostess

Juliana Hoblitzell Copeland, nationally known tennis player, will be tennis hostess at the Racquet Club this year, it was announced today.

Mrs. Copeland, who is ranked No. 4 in the New England States and No. 7 in Florida, was captain of the Junior Wightman's Cup Team in 1955. She formerly was with the Inn in Point Vedra Beach, Florida; the Country Club in New Canaan, Connecticut, and the Edgeworth Club in Switzley, Pennsylvania.

She learned tennis from her late husband, Ed Copeland, who taught such noted players as Shirley Fry, Doda Bundy Chaney, Gardner Larned and Buddy Behrens.

Home town of Mrs. Copeland is Western, Massachusetts.

Senior Netters at Racquet Club

Second annual Racquet Club Senior Tennis tournament will be held Friday through Sunday, November 11 to 13.

Invitations were issued this week for the two events, men's singles and doubles.

Hill Takes Injured Players to Midwest

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Coach Jess Hill of Southern California said today he plans to take three injured players to Minneapolis for the Trojans' game with Minnesota on the chance that they may be able to play.

Hill said end Bing Bordier, center Karl Rubke and half-back Don Hickman would not engage in any contact work the rest of the week and "there is a good chance they will get medical approval on Saturday."

The Trojans staged a full-scale scrimmage yesterday against the junior varsity. The running of Jon Arnett, C. R. Roberts and Doug Kranz and the passing of Jim Contratto featured the drill.

The Desert Sun 11
PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA
Wednesday, October 26, 1955

About 500,000 enthusiasts converged on Seattle three months ago to watch 12 wealthy men try to break a record in huge speedboats. They saw some entries scratched and a couple of other highly touted $250,000 hydroplanes capable of traveling more than 150 miles an hour, unable to complete the three-section 90-mile course for the Gold Cup.

Sardine-like speed addicts jammed the backyard at Indianapolis last Memorial Day to watch a field of 33 starters narrowed by almost half—death, mechanical failure and driver exhaustion. The Indianapolis type cars cost more than $10,000, minimum, and upkeep runs into thousands of dollars each week, for each crew.

THE THOMPSON air races feature jets and clipped-wing World War II planes capable of 600 miles an hour. The stands are jammed each year, just to see the flash of speed governed by a well-coordinated human being.

They wait to see these records made, or they wait longer to discover the record is not going to be broken.

A year of preparation on a race car can be ruined in a second when heat jams a valve opened for a second and the resulting backfire at the tremendous engine speeds blows the whole thing into next year's competition—out of this year's.

The airplanes must work perfectly at all times, or it's worse than prussic acid—takes just one drop to kill.

Indianapolis cars just stop running when their engines stop running.

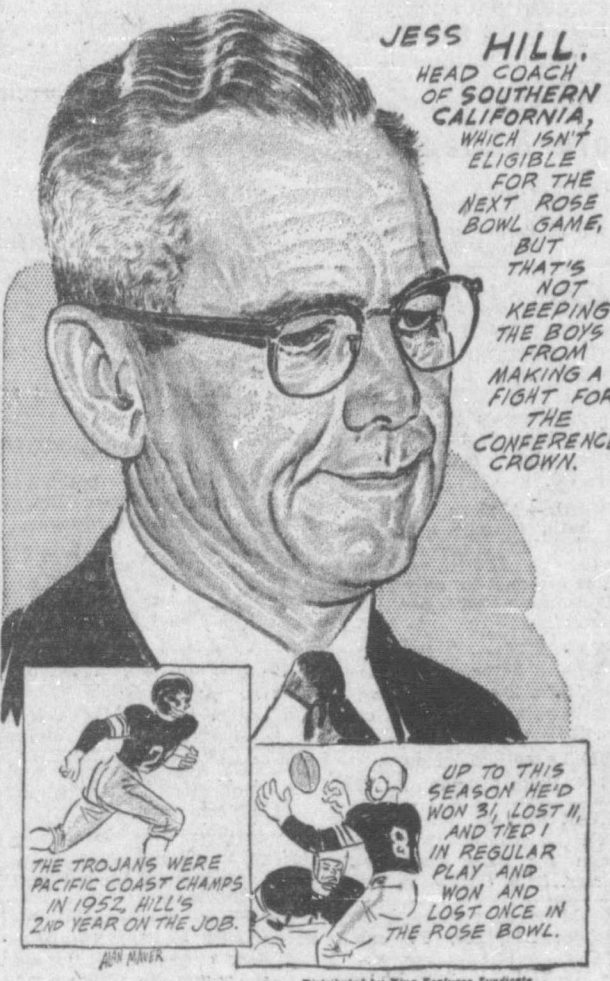

The unlimited hydroplanes—Henry Kaiser's $500,000 Scooter Too and Ray Crawford's $45,000 Zephyr Fury are the most and least costly—are the worse of fender in the spectator frustration game.

WHEN KAISER got through having a new engine put in his 7300 pound Scooter, he was sure he had the record at last. It went about 145 this Sunday at the Desert Shores Regatta on the Salton Sea, its best speed to date.

Zephyr Fury has the fastest engine of its kind. Crawford had work done on the design of the hull by Ernie Stout. Stout is recognized in his trade as the world's foremost hydro-ski expert.

Crawford started building the theoretically perfect Fury in April. It has been through tests at Nevada's Lake Mead, choppy San Diego bay, and Seattle's Lake Washington.

An excellent crew and a fearless driver, pushed the unlimited hydro to little better than 70 at Salton. No wonder Crawford called it Fury.

THE TROJANS WERE PACIFIC COAST CHAMPS IN 1952. HILL'S 2ND YEAR ON THE JOB.

UP TO THIS SEASON HE'D WON 31, LOST 11, AND TIED 1 IN REGULAR PLAY AND WON AND LOST ONCE IN THE ROSE BOWL.

Desert Senior Golf Association to Stage Annual Tourney Nov. 8 to 10

The Palm Springs Desert Senior Golf Association will hold its November Tournament the 8th, 9th, and 10th of next month. There will be 18 holes played each day at O'Donnell, Tamarisk, and Thunderbird, with a stag dinner and presentation of prizes culminating the event at Thunderbird on the evening of the last day.

Among the 150 players over 55 years old, last year's Senior Tournament winner, Carl Haymond, will defend his title against such notables as General Omar Bradley, Jess Medaris, Vice-Consul B. O. Larson, Tirso de Mesa, and William Reichel.

THE FIRST TOURNAMENT sponsored by the Senior Association was played January 12, 13, and 14, at the three clubs. The idea of holding such an invitational match for men of 55 and over was originated by B. F. Shearer, vice-president of O'Donnell Golf Club.

A meeting was held December 17, 1954, and a Board of Directors of the association came into being, headed by J. E. French, chairman; Shearer, president; M. O. Anderson, S. D. Cochran, Ralph Singer, and Arnold Rummel.

The program upon which the men directed their efforts concerned the furthering of golf in Palm Springs over a longer period each year.

THEY WENT ON the assumption that if golfers who ordinarily came to the Village in January were invited in November, they would start the golf season off with an interesting competition and stay to play for the season.

They plan to hold three tournaments each season although the exact dates for the second and third matches have not been set.

The November Tournament will feature a special event for guests of President Shearer. About 30 golfers too young to play as seniors will compete as guests of Shearer.

THE FIRST DAY at O'Donnell will include a luncheon at the Committee of 25 Clubhouse, hosted by Nate Miller, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Drinks will be served all day at the clubhouse, and also at the 19th hole adjoining the Desert Inn.

Similar refreshment services have been arranged for at Tamarisk and Thunderbird. The latter clubs will also serve drinks on the course from a mobile bar.

Kyne Plans for Richest Stakes

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UP)—With the income at race tracks dwindling daily and the $100,000 William P. Kyne Handicap only four days away, William P. Kyne announced today that the running of this race in the Spring of 1957 would be worth $200,000.

"That will make it the richest guaranteed race in the world," said the optimistic general.

The Cincinnati Red Stockings was the name of the first all-professional baseball team, and in 1869, it played 64 games without a loss.

SPORTS in the SUN

Sports Sputterings

CLARENCE L. (Biggie) MUNN built the Spartans of Michigan State into one of the nation's powerhouses and capped a successful head coaching career there by turning out a Rose Bowl winner. Then he retired to take over the job of athletic director.

Helping Biggie in that Spartan effort were three assistant coaches, Hugh (Duffy) Daugherty, Earle Edwards and Steve Sebo, all recognized men in their line.

When Biggie quit, the head coaching job at Michigan State went to Daugherty, a line coach and, at the same time, the other assistants, Edwards and Sebo were recognized to the extent that they, too, became head coaches, Edwards at North Carolina State and Sebo at the University of Pennsylvania.

It was quite a story, then, two years ago when all three first-line assistants became head coaches at the same time.

So how have they fared?

Up until last Saturday, all three were having troubles. Daugherty, taking over a national championship team, faced the biggest job. And, gauging the results, he didn't fare so well, for the Spartans could win but three games last year, and fell all the way to the bottom.

He started off all right this year, winning a decision over Indiana, but then the hated Michigan Wolverines beat him 14 to 7, and it appeared that maybe this would be another poor year. But then his club whipped Stanford, which had beaten Ohio State, and last week dumped the previously unbeaten Irish of Notre Dame. Duffy looks like he's made it.

SEBO, a Michigan State hero himself in the middle 30's, took over the Penn coaching job from George Munger, who had turned out some very fine teams over a long period of years going back to 1938. It also was a tough job.

The 1954 results, Sebo's first year, were disastrous. Penn did not win a game, losing all nine played.

This is a new year, but you wouldn't know it by the results. Penn has played four opponents thus far and the record reads, 0-4, so the Quakers' losing streak under Sebo now stands at 13 straight. Steve is in trouble.

Edwards, a Penn grad, had built up a fine reputation as an end coach both at Michigan State and elsewhere, and he moved into the North Carolina spot where the record was mediocre and where Edwards didn't have to face the national prestige record that Daugherty and Sebo had to meet.

The Wolfpack won only three games in 1952 and three in 1953. But Edwards was expected to bring the record up.

He didn't for in his first season last year his team won but two games and lost eight. And, this year, he got off bad again, losing the first three games until the squad came up with a tie last weekend.

Edwards, like Sebo, has a big job ahead, if he can stay around to do it. Daugherty, it appears, has made it.

ELECTRIC FIRE in a refrigerator motor caused flames to leap out at William Mehrgut, 70, when he opened the door of the appliance in the Ramon Traler park last night. Fire fighters were forced to use gas masks to protect themselves from lethal fumes. Damage was about $400.

Burning Motor Cause of Blaze

A blazing electric motor threw flames at William Mehrgut, 70, as he opened the door of a refrigerator in his trailer yesterday at 5:10 p.m.

The trailer, stationed at the Ramon Traler Park, 1441 Ramon Road, spewed poisonous sulfur dioxide smoke at firemen as they made openings in the walls and played a stream of water in through the door.

Neither Mehrgut, a gardener, nor any firefighters were injured.

Incorporation Expected Despite New Opposition

By BILL RASHALL

Jerry Kosselt, Hollywood accountant, may taste the fruits of victory at the polls in Cabazon November 8, when the residents of that community cast their secret ballot for or against incorporation.

There is belief even among those who oppose the incorporation of that unincorporated area, covering approximately three and one half square miles that a majority of its residents will vote yes for the incorporation of Cabazon into a sixth class city.

But Kosselt, who has worked for months on end to whip up this enthusiasm-coupled with a promise that poker parlors will flourish under his management in Cabazon, will not have the blessings of many residents residing in nearby communities such as Banning and White-water.

AS A MATTER of fact, the First Baptist Church's minister of Banning, Rev. Frank Harris, voiced the opinion that gambling and the possible operation of "even brothels in that nearby community is a definite threat to the morals of this fine city of Banning."

"I have heard no end of vocal opposition to the incorporation of Cabazon purely to make a gambling city out of that community," he added.

It also is definitely known that the pastors of the Four Square Gospel Church and the Community Church in Cabazon and a majority of members of those two churches are vehemently opposed to incorporation and positively against turning the reigns of government, once Cabazon is incorporated, into the hands of Kosselt and his mysterious group of backers, names of which he has steadfastly refused to reveal.

A CENSUS-BOMB-SHELL was thrown into the laps of the County Board of Supervisors by Sheriff Joe Rice yesterday when he reported that a house to house survey ended with 448 residents, 14 of whom indicated that they plan to move from the community just as soon as their work there is finished.

"We have received so many complaints and reports that fraud may be perpetrated upon the people of Cabazon, the Sheriff's office was forced to make a survey," said Sheriff Rice.

"THE SURVEY WAS made with no other intention than to determine if the statutory laws of this county and the State of California were about to be violated. These laws require that there be 500 residents in a community before it may incorporate. Six of my deputies found that only 448 residents reside in Cabazon and they bent over backwards in the enumeration."

However, William Jones, chairman of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, and two other supervisors forming a majority, stated that nothing would be done about Rice's special census.

At the same time Kosselt was sounding off from Hollywood, shouting that the survey was made in order to sway the minds of the voters.

"I PROMISE THAT the group behind me will raise property values in Cabazon and reduce taxes," he is credited with stating for the record at a recent meeting in Cabazon. "But I want no bidding to take place for the operation of poker parlors. Only one man should have that right and that man is me," he was heard to declare. He also admitted that William Shaw, who represents the Guiberson cement interests, "talked to me about erecting a plant here in Cabazon."

Realtors Honor Jack Meiselman

Jack Meiselman, prominent Village subdivider and developer, has been selected by the Palm Springs Real Estate Board to be honored as an honorary member.

Previous recipients of the award have been Francis Crocker, civic leader for many years, and Herman Ranes, city planning director.

The Real Estate Board in this way honors persons who have contributed in a large way to the growth and development of Palm Springs.

Youth Charged with Threatening Officer

L. D. Hunt, 21, 340 South El Segundo, was arrested by police Saturday afternoon on a charge of threatening an officer. The suspect is accused of verbally threatening Officer Jack Fristad, while the latter was on duty directing traffic at the intersection of Ramon Road and Indian Avenue at 2 p.m.

PLAYERS production of "You Can't Take It With You" goes into its last weekend tomorrow night at 8:45 at the American Legion Auditorium on Belardo Road. It will play tomorrow, Friday and Sunday, but will be drak Saturday night. Director Martin Beck said the laugh-filled comedy has been drawing bigger crowds with each performance.

Crackdown Demanded on Air Junkets

Sen. Russell Says Defense Department Aides Riding Free

By JOHN W. FINNEY Correspondent United Press Staff

WASHINGTON (UP)—Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., demanding a congressional crackdown on free travel in government planes by federal officials, said today airplanes are available for personal use of "30 to 40 assistant secretaries" of the Defense Department any time they want to use them.

Russell said these planes often carry only a few officials per trip and that it costs as much to haul them as congressmen.

The assistant secretaries generally are heads of sections within the Defense Department. According to Russell, planes will take them to Europe or wherever they wish to go.

HE DID NOT SAY whether the Assistant Secretaries had abused their privileges but only made known that free transportation was available.

Russell's call for a curtailment of free travel by government officials at the taxpayer's expense was directed to other departments in the executive branch as well as the Defense Department.

Russell told newsmen executive agencies use government aircraft far more than Congress does.

HIS COMMENTS were an outgrowth of a Defense Department charge, later retracted as an error, that two senators had demanded plush air transportation to return them from European inspection tours.

The senators, John L. McClellan, D-Ark., and John Stennis, D-Miss., returned on a regularly scheduled military flight rather than on a special plane flown from Washington to pick them up in Madrid.

It was learned, meanwhile, that the Defense Department provided free transportation to the wives of McClellan and Stennis and two other senators and two committee staff members for a month-long tour of U.S. military bases in Europe.

PEACE

accordance with our Geneva directive, tackle concretely these problems for which our nations have responsibility and which, if unresolved, create tension and danger."

The President regarded as "foremost" among the matters before the Big Four "the reunification of Germany within a framework of European security."

From the Denver White House there continued to be good reports on the President's progress. He was able to take a few steps on Tuesday and probably will do more "step-taking" today.

THE PRESIDENT, in a jaunty mood and showing few visual signs of his illness also was able to pose for news photographers for eight minutes Tuesday on the eighth floor sun-deck at the hospital.

He conferred Tuesday afternoon for 25 minutes with Secretary of Interior Douglas McKay and they canvassed a broad range of Interior Department matters.

The President scheduled no callers at the hospital today be-

Legg Wins New Chance to Quash Perjury Charge

LOS ANGELES (UP)—A Superior Court judge has denied a motion to dismiss a perjury indictment against Chairman Herbert C. Legg of the county board of Supervisors, but Legg will get another chance to try and quash the charge.

Judge Clement D. Nye on Tuesday overruled the contentions of Legg's attorney, Joseph Ball, that the county grand jury which indicted Legg had been illegally impaneled and had heard no evidence that would justify the indictment.

Ball then asked for a motion of demurrer to dismiss the charge. He claimed Legg must be charged with a specific instance of all instances where he has been accused of perjury. The grand jury merely charged him with one count of perjury.

Judge Nye said he would hear arguments on the new motion Friday.

Burning

Issuing of Permits to End October 31

Villagers only have five more days in which to legally burn trash or rubbish.

Permits for burning of any type will not be issued after October 31, according to City Manager R. W. Peterson.

City council a few years ago established the policy of "no burning" in the Fall and Winter months, to protect the smog-free climate here.

Persons wishing to burn trash prior to the deadline are required to get a free permit from the city fire stations.
